Prayers for at Home This Week

Morning Prayer:

God of all beginnings, you bring the new day, and you promise to journey with me through the hours. I thank you for the breath and strength I have, and I beg your help that I may use my powers wisely and with compassion toward everyone I meet. Let my questions today be a form of pruning to bring forth in me new understandings, healing, and good fruit; in Jesus' name. Amen.

Evening Prayer:

Sweet Jesus, in this night of rest, heal my broken places and restore my faith. You are my vine; only in you am I strong enough to face the darkness of this world. I thank you for the safety of my home and pray for those who have no bed tonight. Make me grateful, in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, Mother of us all. Amen.

Warm Weather Means Porch Visits

Now that the weather is warming up and spring is in the air, Pastor Christina is back to offering pastoral porch visits. If you would like Pastor to come visit you, please call her either at home (989-388-4046) or on her cell (248-217-7178) to schedule a time for a visit. Home Communion is also available. Remember that the reason for visiting on the porch is to reduce the risk of sharing COVID germs. Pastor has been vaccinated, but that doesn't necessarily mean that she can't spread the virus.

We Lift Up In Prayer...

- Cindi Viehauser, sister of Rick Teal, diagnosed with cancer in the brain
- The family of Ida Bakker Kramer, who died on April 24.
- Tammy, friend of Karen Rozen, fighting cancer
- Those expecting new babies
- Those preparing for marriage
- Our homebound members and friends
- Those fighting COVID-19 and other illnesses
- Those affected by violence
- Our teachers and students
- Our first responders, emergency personnel, and law enforcement officers
- Our doctors, nurses and caregivers
- Our country and elected leaders
- All ministers, pastors, and congregations
- Those who are grieving any number of losses
- Those who battle addictions of all types
- Those celebrating birthdays and anniversaries
